Darling Frances;-

Got your letter you told me you sent. She was glad to get some mail. Was pretty busy yesterday, so couldn't answer then. Well, Toot, I felt happy last night. I was really an attorney. I drew up a little contract for the loan of $50.00 for the party who lives above us. Richman got it for me. The amount was small & all I could charge was $5.00 but they said they couldn't pay it so I got $3.00. Well I think $3.00 for 15 minutes work isn't so bad at that, do you think so? And my spending money for the month was pretty low so this $3 comes in dog-gone handy. Sure do hope I can make an extra few dollars during the month.

How are you, Loots?

Lovingly
Joe.
